Golf Course

The golf course at Royal Obidos Spa & Golf Resort has received its own royal treatment thanks to one of the greatest golf legends of all time: Seve Ballesteros.

A challenging and beautifully designed course, it sleekly winds its way through the entire resort, creating a framework in which the various properties and facilities reside. Close to the coast, the golfer enjoys great views of the Atlantic Ocean and the Lagoa de Obidos, Portugal's largest lagoon.

The Location

Just minutes from the Atlantic coastline, the resort lies right next to two of Europe's major surfing sites, Peniche-Baleal and Nazare. A choice of great beaches and harbor towns offering famed seafood specialities are joined by Óbidos Lagoon, another water sports hotspot, equally ideal for bird watching, similar to the Berlengas islands, a stunning nature reserve encompassing an uninhabited rocky archipelago, 40 minutes boat ride off the coast.

Situated in the west coast of Portugal, a 50 minute drive from Lisbon International airport and close to the medieval town of Óbidos, the Royal Óbidos Spa & Golf Resort 336 acre site is perfectly positioned to offer outstanding views of the Óbidos Lagoon, the Atlantic Ocean and the golf course.
